

FILED BR

1 of 2

United States District Court
Northern District of Illinois
Eastern Division

JUN 11 2008 adm

JUN 11, 2008

MICHAEL W. BOBBINS
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

MR. Wardell Bright

Petitioner

Case Number: 07C7197

V. S.

(1) MR. R. Melendez *11898

(2) MR. R. Corona *7852

Judge: Mr. James B. Zagel

Magistrate Judge: Brown

In forma Pauperis, and financial affidavit:
Appeal Motion for a Pro bono Counsel.

Now comes the plaintiff: MR. Wardell Bright, in his own proper, and Moves this Honorable Court to enter an order for, appointment of Pro bono Counsel.

(1) The federal in forma pauperis statute provides that a court May request an attorney to represent any person unable to afford Counsel. 28 U.S.C.S. §1915(e)(1).

(2) I am indigent, and without the financial resource of any Description -- Whatsoever, to Retain counsel too Represent me in my, time of Need; (Complaint).

(3) I the plaintiff are indigent, and presently incarcerated, and awaiting Trial.

(4) ~~XP~~ The Legislature is Reconizing the need for more Pro-bono Counsel, too be appointed in cases like this.

2 of 2

(5) I the plaintiff sincerely beleives, that unless, I Receives the relief Sough in this Motion; that I will Surely, be incapable myself to be effective, in court. My Federal, and State guaranteed Rights to (Due-Process) and (Equal Protection) of the Law, and under the Law; Justice would "most like", be unfairly rendered in the proceeding case before this Honorable court.

(6) I'M incapable of engaging in any investigation, or locating, and presenting key witnesses, or evidence.

(7) I can-not; Present a reasonable coherent opening Statement, OR examination of witnesses, OR defendants.

(8) I can-not; Present Closing argument's during Trial.

(9) Consider; The difficulty of my case: Benjamin Pruitt V. Stephen D. Mote, 503 F. 3d 647 (7th Cir. 2007).

Swofford V. S. Maxwell, 969 F. 2d 547, 551 (7th Cir. 1992)

(10) Don't know legal Standards, OR case-Law et, al.

(11) It's a reasonable likelihood, that "assistance" of a Counsel will "Make a difference", in the out come of my Case.

(12) This Motion was filed in good faith; The plaintiff Respectfully move this Honorable court to appoint Pro-Bono Counsel.

Signature: Mr. Wardell Bright
Date: May 29-2008